

Retail Sales & Inventory Analytics

Executive Summary

Products & Inventory
Perormance

Demand Drivers

$82.1M

Total Revenue

1839.2K

Total Units Sold

$44.7

Average Selling Price

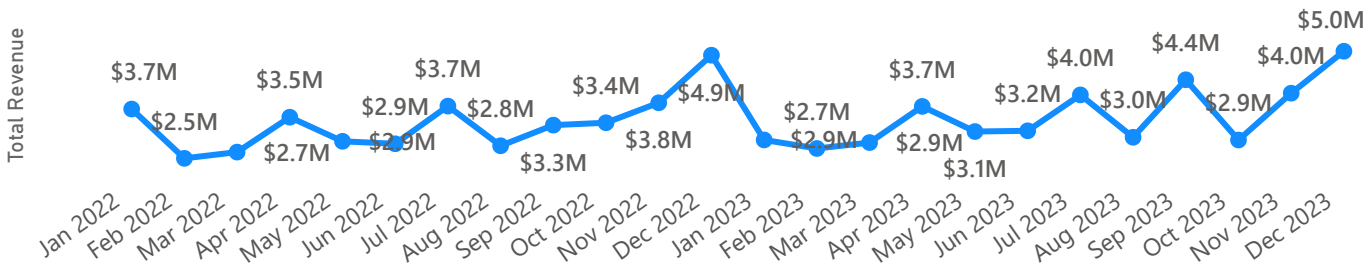

13.6%

Stockout Rate

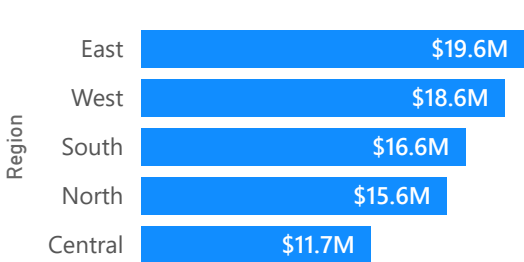

39.5%

Promotion Unit Lift %

Monthly Revenue Trend

Revenue by Region

Filters

Year

All

Month Name

All

Region

All

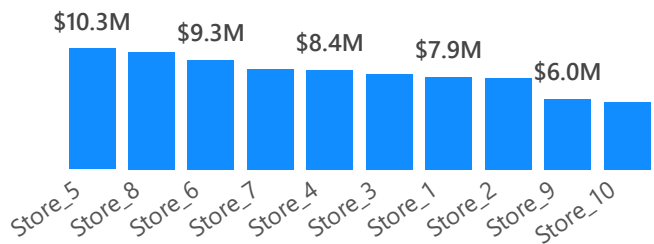

Store Id

All

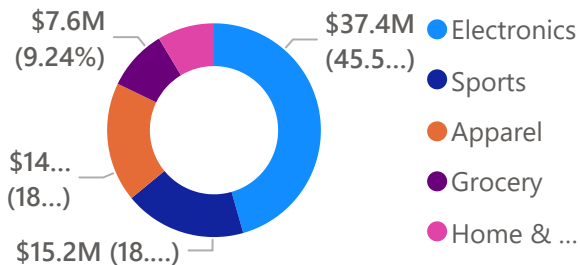

Category

All

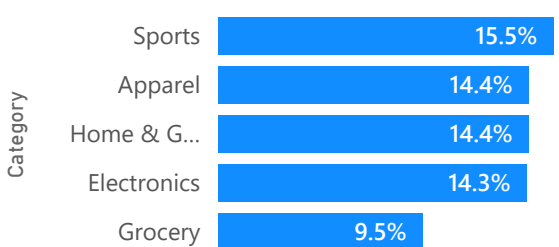

Revenue by Store

Total Revenue by Category

Stockout Rate by Category

Key Insights

- East region generated the highest revenue, while Central remained the lowest-performing region.
- Electronics contributed nearly 46% of total revenue, making it the largest revenue-driving category.
- Sports experienced the highest stockout rate (15.5%), indicating potential inventory shortages.
- Promotions increased unit sales by 39.5%, confirming a significant positive impact on demand.

Product & Inventory Performance

Executive Summary

Products & Inventory
Perormance

Demand Drivers

25

Total Products

17.5K

Weekly Demand

15.9K

Average Inventory on Hand

52.4%

Sell-through Rate %

13.6%

Stockout Rate

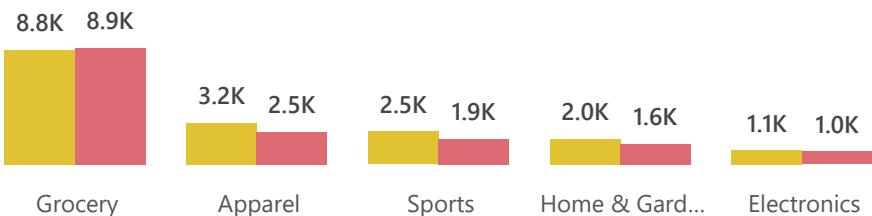

Top 5 Products by Revenue

Show Bottom 5

Weekly Demand vs Inventory on Hand by Category

● Average Weekly Demand ● Average Weekly Inventory End

Filters

Year

All

Month Name

All

Region

All

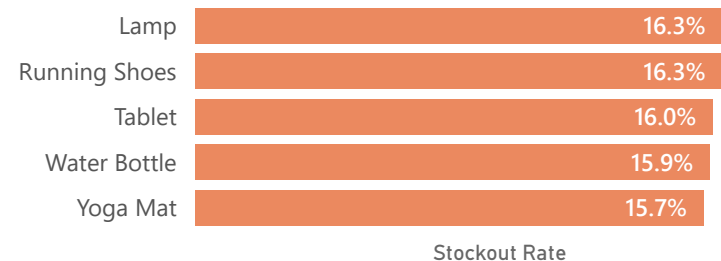

Product Na...

All

Category

All

Products with Highest Stockouts

Store Inventory Summary

Store	Weekly Demand	Inventory on Hand	Stockout Rate
Store_7	1.9K	0.9K	28.6%
Store_8	2.2K	1.1K	26.9%
Store_4	2.0K	1.2K	19.1%
Store_3	1.9K	1.2K	18.7%
Store_2	1.7K	1.7K	12.0%
Store_1	1.5K	1.5K	10.0%

Key Insights

- Headphones generated the highest revenue, followed by Smart Watches and Laptops.
- Grocery maintains the highest inventory on hand, closely matching weekly demand.
- Store 7 and Store 8 report the highest stockout rates, indicating replenishment priorities.
- Lamps and Running Shoes have the highest stockout rates, suggesting consistent inventory shortages.

Demand Drivers

Executive Summary

Products & Inventory
Perormance

Demand Drivers

39.5%

Promotion Unit Lift %

34.0%

Holiday Unit Lift %

-$5.9

Average Price Difference

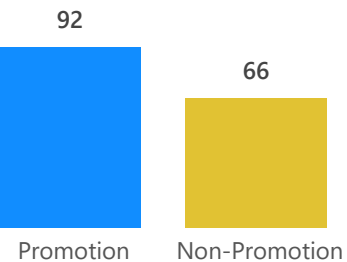

62.8%

Forecast Accuracy %

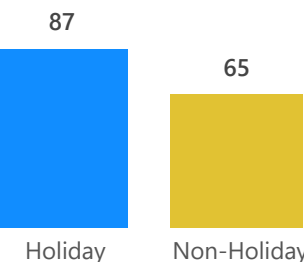

26.1

Average Forecast Error

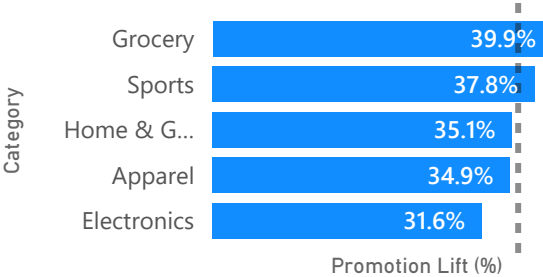

Promotion Impact on Demand

Holiday Impact on Demand

Promotion Lift by Category

Filters

Year

All

Month Name

All

Region

All

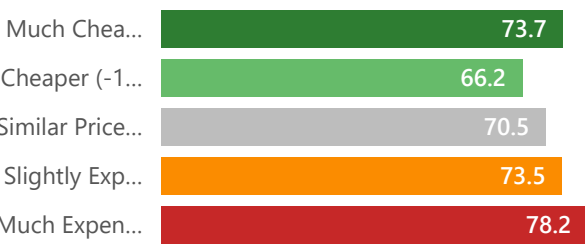

Store Id

All

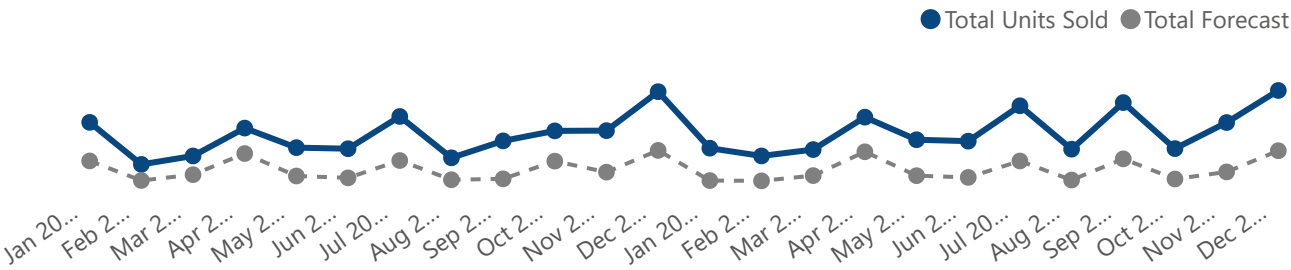

Category

All

Demand by Price Position

Actual Demand vs Baseline Forecast

Key
Insights

- Promotions increased average weekly demand by 39.5%, with Grocery showing the highest promotional lift (39.9%).
- Holiday periods generated 34.0% higher demand than non-holiday weeks, confirming strong seasonal buying behavior.
- Average demand remained relatively consistent across all price positions, indicating limited impact of competitor pricing on demand.
- Baseline forecasts achieved 62.8% accuracy, indicating scope to improve demand planning and forecasting.